FURTHERED QUESTIONS, FOR FURTHER EXPLORATION

How can we increase personal interaction to increase productivity?

What kind of ambient effects (lighting, window view, colors) can impact the work environment in a positive way?

What can the company do outside of work to re-enforce a familial atmosphere?

How can the process of getting into work (on company grounds) be improved or enhanced? (grounds, exterior design and architecture), entrance processing and 'clocking in')

Is there a way that specific space, such as a work exhibition area, can be integrated into the studio environment to increase discussion and idea sharing?

What technology might be in use, but not being used in a correct manner in order to maximize efficiency and connectivity amongst team members?

Do other users in the IBM Studio Centers around the worlds have ideas that they have developed from their already established spaces? How can these be implemented here in 919?